

Inland waterways and cultural heritage

Inland waterways and cultural heritage

- Introduction.
- Describe how cultural heritage has been incorporated in your Canal Link project.
- What do your projects have in common?
- How are your projects different from each other?
- What have you learned from each other?

Inland waterways and cultural heritage

- Introduction
- Describe how cultural heritage has been incorporated in your Canal Link project.
- What do your projects have in common?
- How are your projects different from each other?
- What have you learned from each other?

Inland waterways and cultural heritage

The Netherlands

Municipality of Langedijk

Achterburggracht

Inland waterways and cultural heritage

Flanders

Province of West-Flanders

Roeselaere - Leie Canal

Inland waterways and cultural heritage

- Introduction
- Describe how cultural heritage has been incorporated in your Canal Link project.
- What do your projects have in common?
- How are your projects different from each other?
- What have you learned from each other?

Inland waterways and cultural heritage

Municipality of Langedijk:

- 1000-islands and canals
- The “Lepelaar“ bridge
- Cultural heritage as a basis for a touristic marketing plan

Inland waterways and cultural heritage

West-Flanders:

- The “Mandel“ river
Castles
Shoe factories
Brewery “Rodenbach“
- The Roeselare – Leie Canal
3-steps lock

Inland waterways and cultural heritage

- Introduction
- Describe how cultural heritage has been incorporated in your Canal Link project.
- What do your projects have in common?
- How are your projects different from each other?
- What have you learned from each other?

Inland waterways and cultural heritage

Inland waterways and cultural heritage

- Introduction
- Describe how cultural heritage has been incorporated in your Canal Link project.
- What do your projects have in common?
- How are your projects different from each other?
- What have you learned from each other?

Inland waterways and cultural heritage

agricultural industrial

Inland waterways and cultural heritage

- Introduction
- Describe how cultural heritage has been incorporated in your Canal Link project.
- What do your projects have in common?
- How are your projects different from each other?
- What have you learned from each other?

Inland waterways and cultural heritage

Langedijk has learned from West-Flanders:

Renovation of the lock has an impact on recreational navigation

Inland waterways and cultural heritage

West-Flanders has learned from Langedijk:

Navigability has affect on the qualitative aspects of urban planning

Thank You